MADUMITA MIRA BALAJI

Washington, DC • mb3073@georgetown.edu • linkedin.com/in/madumitabalaji • madumitabalaji-stack.github.io

SUMMARY

Georgetown LL.M. graduate (International Business and Economic Law) with a Certificate in Securities and Financial Law, working at the intersection of financial regulation, crypto and fintech compliance, and AI governance. I build regulatory-change-monitoring systems, translate regulatory obligations into policies and controls, and produce clear written analysis for business and policy audiences. Founder of the State Stablecoin Atlas, a primary-source platform tracking digital-asset regulation across all 50 states and DC. Published legal author; eligible to sit for the New York bar; currently pursuing the ACAMS CAFCA (Certified AML FinTech Compliance Associate) certification.

EDUCATION

Georgetown University Law Center — Washington, DC
Master of Laws (LL.M.), International Business and Economic Law — May 2026
Relevant Coursework: Securities Regulation, The Essentials of FinTech Law (A-), Innovation, Technology and International Financial Regulation (A-), Corporations (A) • Certificate in Securities and Financial Law • GPA 3.58.

Tamil Nadu National Law University — Tiruchirappalli, India
B.Com., LL.B. (Hons.), Integrated Business and Law Degree — May 2025
Relevant Coursework: Law on Securities (A), International Investment Law (A+), Banking Law, Competition Law, Intellectual Property Law.

Stanford University — Stanford, CA
Ethics, Technology, and Public Policy Program — 2026

EXPERIENCE

State Stablecoin Atlas statestablecoinatlas.com — Washington, DC
Founder and Maintainer — 2026 – Present
- Built and maintain a primary-source platform that maps how stablecoins and digital assets are regulated across all 50 states and DC, with an automated pipeline that flags new rules and regulatory guidance as they issue.
- Monitor and analyze regulatory developments, assess their impact, and produce clear written analysis; maintain a companion tracker of how the SEC, CFTC, OCC, and FinCEN are approaching AI.

Blupryntt Inc. — Washington, DC
Legal Extern, Technology and Regulatory Affairs — January 2026 – April 2026
- Wrote and maintained compliance policies and procedures, translating regulatory obligations into concrete controls and documentation to a defensible, examination-ready standard.
- Conducted KYC and customer due diligence reviews and reviewed accounts and counterparties for risk.
- Supported compliance monitoring and documented determinations and findings to an audit-ready standard.
- Partnered with product, engineering, and compliance teams on the governance and compliance of new product development.

Center for Trade and Investment Laws (CTIL) — New Delhi, India
Research Intern — December 2024
- Researched international trade and cross-border regulatory and policy frameworks and produced structured written analysis for stakeholders under deadline.

Lakshmikumaran & Sridharan Attorneys — Chennai, India
Trade, Regulatory and Economic Laws Intern — May 2024 – June 2024
- Prepared regulatory filings and responses to agency notices and inquiries on trade and customs matters, distilling complex regulatory requirements into clear, defensible documentation.

Khaitan & Co — Mumbai, India
Intern, White-Collar Crime and Investigations — December 2023
- Drafted an anti-bribery and anti-money-laundering policy and supported investigations into financial-crime matters, conducting legal research and clear written analysis.

PUBLICATIONS & SKILLS

Publication: Author, "The Rise of Generative AI," Indian National Law Review.
Regulatory & Compliance: Regulatory-change monitoring and impact analysis, AML/KYC and customer due diligence, compliance policies and procedures, regulatory examination support, securities and investment-adviser regulation (SEC, CFTC, FINRA)
AI Governance & Research: Tracking how US regulators govern AI, automated monitoring pipelines, primary-source legal and policy research, clear written analysis for business and policy audiences
Credentials: Eligible to sit for the New York bar • published legal author • Microsoft Office